New Delhi, July 10 (ANI): Every person has a desire to stay in the lap of luxury but without burning a hole in your pocket. Radisson Blu MBD Hotel's brand new MBD Prive Collection is something a traveller can consider this season. Launched at the second floor of Noida's iconic Radisson property, the Prive floor's corridor is in tune with the decor of the Franco-Venetian style rooms. It's the attention to detail that strikes you the moment you enter your room. The interiors display a perfect marriage of French and Venetian styles, bearing design elements that encapsulate influences from the Victorian age, infused with modern luxury in a subtle manner. Although the Radisson Noida has been known to cater business travellers, the new Prive Collection rooms are here to take it to a different level by ensuring that the regular traveller is served in the best possible manner. While the subtle wallpapers and the stylish patterns of the floor carpets have a calming effect on the mind, a royal charm is added to the decor by an emperor-sized bed, a grand chandelier and the golden-framed colonial paintings adorning the walls. Specially designed for the guests living in these rooms, the Prive Lounge serves as a true testimony to the fact. The synergy of timeless craftsmanship and modern en
