

Modern Institute launch

MBD forays into coaching

LUDHIANA: Having risen from the city of Jalandhar and spread its branches around the world, MBD Group has come back to its roots with the launch of its first Modern Institute coaching centre in the city on March 10. The Group plans to open 20 centres across the country in the next five to seven years. Managing Director of MBD Group Monica Malhotra Kandhari, said, 'We've been assiduous with our work over the decades and we've transformed from a publishing house to an education company and we are now moving towards becoming academic company. Our endeavour is to bring diverse educational products and services for students'.
