Members of the Women Sub-Committee of the Northern Zone Insurance Employees' Association, celebrated International Women's Day at LIC office, Dugri, today.

Ritu Abaan, convenor of the women's sub-committee, said since 2006, the women sub-committee had been celebrating this day. She said: "We celebrate this day by associating it with some social activity. In the past, our women sub-committee had distributed books, copies, water coolers, school uniforms and also had contributed to build washrooms for schools."

This year, the sub-committee pledged to submit full-year admission and school fees of needy girl students (Class XII) of Ramgarhia Senior Secondary School, Ludhiana. Apart from this, school bags, copies and stationery items have been distributed among other needy girl students of Class XII.

On the occasion, the Northern Zone Insurance Employees Association felicitated Purti and Priya Suri, convenor of the Creative Study Circle, Ludhi-
